Filthy For some of us, spanking is more than just a fun way to spice things up.

For some of us, it's a need.

For some of us, it's like breathing. For some of us, it's a fire that burns to our core and fills us, burning deep. I've been going to Club Blaze for two years now and I've tried every kink imaginable, but nothing gets me going the way a spanking does. Nothing makes me as excited as feeling a firm hand hold me down while another reminds me how bad I've been. Nothing. But the one person I want to share this side of me with the most is the one person who will never accept me for what I really need: to be controlled.
