For years, Fiona served as her master's maid and personal assistant in the bedroom. When he passes away, his three sons come to lay claim to his belongings. Two brothers receive valuable property, but the last, Shawn, gets only the maid.

Shawn accepts that he'll be poor forever, but Fiona has other plans. With her skills in bed, plus a pair of magic boots, she embarks on a quest to make her new master rich. The fastest way to wealth, she decides, is for him to marry a princess. At first, she'll do anything to convince the vain Princess Viola to marry Shawn. Before long, though, Fiona realizes no princess is good enough for her master -- she'd rather have his hot body all to herself.
