Twenty-seven year old Eric Williams is at his wits end. He has two baby mamas, a boatload of bills that need to be paid, and an eviction notice on his front door.

Not to mention his struggling career as a musician and songwriter. Sinking in debt by the second, Eric signs on to a Christian website dedicated to helping people like himself get noticed. To his surprise, he gets a call regarding his career and is offered the opportunity of a lifetime...a chance to write songs for Grammy Award-Winning artist Briyanah, a young twenty-eight year old who has just survived her second nasty divorce. While Eric tries to remain focused on writing songs, the flirtatious Briyanah looks to make her newest employee her next husband. With days counting down until the 2011 Grammy Awards and Briyanah up for numerous awards, Eric begins to fall for her. That is until her ex-husband returns with a vengeance and begins to wreak havoc on the gospel star's life; and when a video that nobody knew about is released, all hell breaks loose.

Will Eric and Briyanah live happily ever after or will the devil's attack swallow them whole? Author Keyon spins a new Christian Romance that will have you on the edge of your seat until the very ending.
