Cindy, (aka Sin), has been working as a stripper trying to put herself through Veterinarian school since she left home two years ago. Of course, everyone in the club would think she was nuts, considering who her famous family is. So when her billionaire step shows up at the club, she is careful not to tell anyone that she knows him as she hopes and prays that he doesn't recognize her. But as soon as he asks to see her privately in the back room, she knows she's busted. But the secrets he reveals behind closed doors are surprising. And not just the one about how he's always wanted to take her hard, fast, and without protection. There's more... so much more...
